NARRATIVE:

Ivania Martinez is a documented gang member who has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. Her convictions include exhibiting a firearm, robbery, felon in possession of a firearm, assault with a deadly weapon, receiving stolen property, tampering with a vehicle and failing to report. She has served multiple incarceration, the longest being a 32 month term for felon in possession of a firearm. Martinez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 24, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Martinez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for felon in possession of a firearm is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
